Veteran Journalist Carl Bernstein has revealed that a plurality of Republican Senators have privately expressed their absolute disgust for Donald Trump.

> I'm not violating any pledge of journalistic confidentially in reporting this: 21 Republican Sens–in convos w/ colleagues, staff members, lobbyists, W. House aides–have repeatedly expressed extreme contempt for Trump & his fitness to be POTUS. The 21 GOP Senators who have privately expressed their disdain for Trump are: Portman, Alexander, Sasse, Blunt, Collins, Murkowski, Cornyn, Thune, Romney, Braun, Young, Tim Scott, Rick Scott, Rubio, Grassley, Burr, Toomey, McSally, Moran, Roberts, Shelby. With few exceptions, their craven public silence has helped enable Trump's most grievous conduct—including undermining and discrediting the US the electoral system.

All of these individuals with few exceptions are swamp creatures, basic corporate conservatives and neocons warhawks. That said, it is not surprising that they are quite sick of Donald Trump. The Republican party, more than just a political party, is a cult of crybaby faggots. Their one and only job it to keep the White people who vote for them on the plantation, and that involves having to defend Trump. And they're simply sick of it. I'm sick of it. Unless you're a diehard maga fan, you're sick of it. Trump is no longer entertaining, he's just exhausting. The endless petty fights, the stupid tweets, the constant attacks on people for no reason, combined with the neocon policy making and hysteria of the media establishment – let's just say I'll be glad when he is gone.
